The 2012 Seabreeze collusion 27.09.2012

Dear Mr. Flurry.

During announcements, 18 October 2011, it was announced by Mr. David Fraser that the brethren should not book ahead for the 2012 Feast of tabernacles at Seabreeze in George as it was not yet certain where God would place his name for the 2012 FOT. (It has been sort of the tradition to book ahead at Seabreeze for the following FOT) Mr. Fraser announced that the church would be scouting around for a 2012 FOT site and that all the brethren should pray about it. During November it was announced that a suitable site for the 2012 FOT may have been found and the feast site would need to be approved. It was said by one of the brethren that the proposed site would be at the suikerbosrand area close to Heidelburg.

On the 10th of December Messrs. Max Rummler, Gerry Meaker, George Ghithembi and David Fraser were in Johannesburg, it was announced that Mr. Fraser would be going back to Australia. It was also announced that Messrs Gerry Meaker and Bernard Wakelin would be in charge of the South African brethren.

On the 17th of December 2011 a regional announcement from Mr. Rummler was read out that the 2012 FOT site would again be in George, it was also announced that Mr. Fraser would be leaving for Australia on the 19th December 2011. (Mr. Fraser gave a sermonette on that Sabbath and spoke of Paul being taken away- the members were commended to God and Satan attacked. The members could not remain loyal; they sorrowed for Paul instead of sorrowing for the grievous wolves which would come in. We must get together often as a family and build unity. We must be able to stand alone, fear the lord, and always remember the law, work out our own salvation and do not murmur or dispute.) I have attached the notes which I took on the sermonette which MR Fraser gave 17.12.2011.

On the 24th of December 2011 it was announced that the brethren could book for the 2012 FOT at Seabreeze and that the rates would be better than that of last year as the church had secured a better rate by booking all the cabanas. It was announced that the brethren should only start booking for accommodation from the 1st May until the 31st May through Mrs. Wakelin. Late March, early April a document (Exhibit "D") was made available on the information desk with the cabana unit rates for the duration of the FOT. This document was generated by the Seabreeze establishment on the 21st December 2011 at 18h08. Proof that this was the original document generated by Seabreeze is on the back of this document, the Seabreeze cancellation policy, some rules and the booking in and booking out times are depicted on the rear of this document. (Exhibit "D1")

On the 1st of May 2012 I phoned Mrs. Wakelin and booked cabana no 35. (In South Africa the 1st of May is a public holiday) I told Mrs. Wakelin that we would be three sharing the cabana. Mrs. Wakelin told me that the rate per day for cabana 35 would be R650.00 per day for two sharing and that for a third person sharing it would then be R750.00 per night. (This is R50.00 more per day than the cabana rate document which was on the information desk, exhibit "D") Mrs. Wakelin told me that she would book no 35 under my name and that I had to pay a deposit of R1400 into the church account within seven days. She told me that she would send me the booking letter on the 2nd May 2012. I told Mrs. Wakelin that I want to come down to the feast site two days before the FOT commences. Mrs. Wakelin told me that I would have to book any extra days directly with the Seabreeze establishment as the church has only booked the venue for the duration of the FOT – Arriving 30.09.2012 and departing 09.10.2012. A little later during the day Mrs. Wakelin phoned me and told me that no 35 is a four bedroom cabana, and seeing as we are only three who would be in the cabana, would I not prefer a three bedroom cabana. I agreed, and then told Mrs. Wakelin to rather book cabana no 37 for me. She again confirmed that she would send the booking confirmation 02.05.2012.

On 2nd May 2012 when I got home from work I Phoned Seabreeze and told Ronel that I was part of the PCG group and would like to secure cabana no 37 for the two days prior to the commencement of the FOT. (28th and 29th September 2012) Ronel told me that Seabreeze has given the church a reduced rate on each of the cabanas and that she would charge me the same rate that Seabreeze has charged the church for the two extra nights that I want to book. (R600.00 per night for two sharing and an extra charge of R100.00 for additional persons per night) Ronel told me that Mr. & Mrs. Wakelin have booked cabana no 6 for the FOT. Ronel told me that the churches account with Seabreeze is R175000.00 – 50 percent of R300000.00. Ronel told me that of all the cabanas available, the church did not book cabana no 37. When Ronel told me that cabana no 37 had not been booked by the church I then asked her to book cabana no 37 for me for the whole duration of the FOT, and to send me a booking confirmation.

On 3rd May 2012 I went through to one of our mining contracting sites, Two Rivers Platinum, near the town of Lydenburg – 400KM from my home. I only got back home late afternoon on the 4th May 2012. I checked my E-Mails and saw that Mrs. Wakelin had sent me a booking confirmation letter on 03.05.2012. (Exhibit "B1") For the Nine nights Mrs. Wakelin charged R750.00 per night for three persons sharing. I also noted that I had received a booking confirmation from Seabreeze, for the same nine nights Seabreeze charged R700.00 per night for three persons sharing. (Exhibits "C & C1) I immediately phoned Seabreeze and spoke with Devon, I first confirmed that no 37 had not been booked for the time period of the FOT by the church and then asked Devon to secure the booking of cabana no 37 for me – arriving 28.09.2012 and departing 09.10.2012. (Eleven nights) I paid the deposit of R3700.00 (50 percent of R7400.00) on 07.05.2012 into the Seabreeze account. (Exhibit no "C2")

On 12th May 2012 I e-Mailed Mrs. Wakelin and told her that I had booked cabana no 37 through Seabreeze as the cabana had not been booked by the church, this being the case at least cabana no 37 would be occupied by PCG members. I also expressed to her that I was quite pleased because the rate that the church was charging was R50.00 more per day than what Seabreeze was charging. (Exhibit "E")

On 14.05.2012 I left home at 04h00 for Two Rivers Platinum mine and only got back home late afternoon on 16.05.2012.

On 17.05.2012 I checked my e-Mails and found an e-Mail sent by Mrs. Wakelin sent 14.05.2012 at 10h16, she told me that Seabreeze had made a mistake and that cabana no 37 had definitely been booked by the church and that she had asked Ronel to refund me R2500.00 minus the two extra days I booked before the FOT. (R1200.00) (Exhibit "F") Mrs. Wakelin also sent me a new

Booking letter requiring a deposit of R1350.00 to be paid into the church account by 18.05.2012. (Exhibit "F1") I also found an e-Mail sent on 14.05.2012 at 10h49 by Ronel from Seabreeze saying that Mrs. Wakelin had contacted her and told her that the PCG group had already paid my deposit for the accommodation in cabana no 37 from 30.09.2012 until 08.10.2012, and that Seabreeze would refund me the portion which was paid by the church. (Exhibit "F2) On 17.05.2012 I E-Mailed my banking details to Ronel at Seabreeze. (Exhibit "F3") I Phoned Mrs. Wakelin and told her that I would not be able to pay the deposit required by the 18th may 2012 as I would be on one of our shaft sinking sites in Balfour on that day, and that I would pay the required deposit early the following week. I also asked Mrs. Wakelin why is it that she is charging R50.00 more per day for the Seabreeze accommodation as the cabana rates on the information desk are R50.00 cheaper. (Exhibit "G" and Exhibit "D") Mrs. Wakelin asked me to E-Mail the document which was on the information desk at Sabbath services for many weeks, which I did. (Exhibit "G1")

On 18.05.2012 I received an E-Mail from Mrs. Wakelin informing me that the list of cabana costs on the information desk is confusing and that it was not the list mailed at the end of March, she said that Mr. Trietsch had been contacted and that the correct cabana rates would be available on the information desk on the Sabbath of the 19.05.2012. (Exhibit "H") I phoned Mr. Trietsch regarding the matter and Mr. Trietsch told me that he had been contacted by a very angry Mr. Meaker wanting to know how it was that I had acquired a copy of the cabana rates. Mr. Meaker instructed Mr. Trietsch to remove the list of cabana rates from the information table, (Exhibit "D") and replace it with the altered list of cabana rates. (Exhibit "H1") Mr. Trietsch wrote the date, 18.05.2012 and signed, on the new cabana rate list which he received from Mrs. Wakelin.

On 19.05.2012 the altered list of cabana rates was on the information table. Each cabana rate has been increased with R50.00. Cabana no 6 is not featured on the altered list. (Exhibit "H1") This is the cabana which was secured by Mr. and Mrs. Wakelin even before the 1st of May 2012. Please note that cabana no "9" is not available on the altered list which was sent by Mrs. Wakelin on 18.05.2012 – this is the cabana in which Mr. & Mrs. Aaron Hudson stayed for the FOT. (Exhibit "H1") I am mentioning this as additional proof that the cabana rate document which was on the information desk is not the same as the one which was placed on the information desk 19.05.2012 and not because I have an issue with who stays where. It is way to easy to read another meaning into something said or written.

On 22.05.2012 I paid the required deposit into the PCG account. (Exhibit"J")

On 24.05.2012 Mrs. Wakelin sent me an E-Mail confirming my deposit payment and attached a Feast accommodation letter. (Exhibit "J1")

On 07.08.2012 I paid the balance of R5350.00 for the 2012 FOT accommodation into the PCG account, and received the confirmation letter thereof from MRS Wakelin via E-Mail on 08.08.2012. (Exhibit "J2")

One of our brethren is in quite a predicament due to the circumstances. He has been attending the FOT for 26 years. He is a pensioner and cannot afford the Seabreeze rates; he booked at Herolds bay in George for the FOT which is R3000.00 cheaper than Seabreeze. He has been told that he may not book at Herolds bay. He tells me that if he goes to the FOT and resides at Herolds bay he will be in trouble with the ministry, and if he does not attend the FOT due to his inability to afford the exorbitant rates at Seabreeze, he will be in trouble with God. (Confusion)This is only but one case, a number of other brethren are in a very similar position. Another of the brethren said “I am to afraid to say anything” (Fear)

The facts are in your hands and in Gods hands and may righteousness prevail.

Yours in Faith,

Alex Foster.

Hi Mrs Wakelin,

Regarding my booking; cabana no 37 Seabreeze. I contacted Seabreeze in order to secure a reservation for the 28th and 29th of September, as i intend arriving at the Feast venue a day or so before opening night to properly settle in. Ronel at Seabreeze informed me, that of all the available cabana's, no 37 was not booked by the PCG. I then asked Ronel to secure the cabana for the whole period of the Feast, for myself, Trevor and Louie from 28 Sept to 9 Oct. She done so. Devon sent me the invoice which actually worked out R50 cheaper per day, as opposed to the invoice which you sent me. (R450 saving for the 9 days 30 Sept to 9 Oct) Needless to say i am quite pleased with the saving. I have paid the deposit to Seabreeze. So at least chalet 37 will be occupied by PCG brethren for the Feast of Tabernacles.

Warm regards
Alex

Hello Alex,

Thanks for your email - I'm wondering why you didn't contact me and mention what Ronel told you before making the booking for the entire time directly with Seabreeze?

Cabana 37 is definitely on our group booking list (received from Seabreeze) - Ronel made a mistake - I have spoken with her and she will be emailing you. The cost for the 2 nights 28 and 29 Sept is R1,200 (they originally quoted R650 for 2 people per night) - Ronel tells me that the deposit you paid to Seabreeze is R3,700. She will arrange a refund of R2,500 (R3,700 less R1,200 for the 2 nights) and will contact you for your bank details.

For the Feast dates of 30 Sept to 9 Oct - please make the booking for cabana 37 through the PCG office as it is part of the group booking. Please find attached your Feast accommodation booking letter - I have amended the due date for the deposit of R1,350.00 to this Friday 18 May 2012. All payments for this booking need to be made into the PCG's bank account per the attached letter.

Have a good week ahead!

Warm regards,
Avril Wakelin

Hi Mrs Wakelin,

As discussed, i only arrived back home today. I have been in Lydenburg since Monday 14th. I will not be able to get the Seabreeze de[posit to you by the 18th - but will certainly do so early in the week. Ronel has sent me a mail informing me that she will refund me the feast days deposit which was R2500.

Regarding the cost of the cabana, a notification of the cabana unit cost was available at the information table here in JHB, the unit cost for cabana 37 is shown as R600/day; extra days at R650/day for 2 persons sharing - plus an extra charge of R100/per additional person per day.

I attach the notification of the unit charges as discussed.

Warm regards,
Alex

Hello Alex,

Hope you had a good trip to Lydenburg - my husband has just returned from a business trip too.

That's no problem about the deposit - please email me your proof of payment once you make the payment next week.

There has been some confusion about the list of cabana costs - this is not the list that was emailed at the end of March. Mr Trietsch has been contacted and the correct list will be placed on the information table in Jo'burg tomorrow.

Have an uplifting Sabbath!

Warm regards,
Avril Wakelin
